Old Business

- Fall Sports Night was a success!
- Early bird campaign- Lisa Schultz
 - Exceeded last year's dollars already
 - 142 members so far not including teachers, who haven't been given an opportunity to join, yet. 181 total last year
 - 77 memberships prior to Fall Sports Night
 - all incentives for membership drive were donated
- Volunteers for Rider Charge and Freshman Orientation to man the Booster table and sell memberships are needed.
- People can pay for membership online, now by going to the RHS Booster page

New Business:

- School Spirit Committee- Collin Moriarty
 - Four elementary school/middle school nights set
 - October 1- Middle School Night at volleyball game
 - October 2- Elementary Night at football game (Homecoming)
 - October 22- Middle School Night at football game
 - October 27- Elementary School Night at volleyball game
 - Email was sent to all elementary and middle school principals that feed into RHS regarding these special events. Overwhelmingly positive response by elementary principals.
 - Lois Running- Discovery Elementary- wants high school kids to be in her school more often.
 - Wondered if we could offer free tickets to sporting events and/or concerts or plays as rewards for students at Discovery.
 - Billion Toyota is going to bring new model cars to test drive at the Homecoming game. For each person who test drives, Billion will donate $20 to the Booster Club. Hoping to have enough for rubber bracelets for the kids who come to the special nights listed above.
- Presidents Bowl- Rich Brenneman
 - Presidents Bowl is more than just the football games. Starts with the 5K in June and ends with the basketball tournament in November.
 - Game times:
 - 3:30- Washington High School vs. Yankton High School
 - 7:00- Roosevelt High School vs. Lincoln High School
 - 10-12 that morning is a Cheer Camp and Football Clinic at Howard Wood Field
 - Volunteer update- Alice Peters
 - We do not ask Cross Country, Track, or Football parents to volunteer, as Track and XC are asked to volunteer at the 5K and Football is asked to volunteer at the BB Tournament
 - Use the Sign Up Genius link to sign up at:
www.SignUpGenius.com/go/10C084EADAA2DA3F94-presidents/7496835
 - Sold 206 tickets at Fall Sports Night- ahead of the other schools!

- Sold 33 BK tickets at Fall Sports Night, as well.
 - BK ticket money goes directly to the sport that sells them- great fundraiser.
 - Will be located at the southeast end of the field.
 - We will give Yankton $2.50 of each BK ticket sold.
 - Each athlete and activity participant are asked to sell 10 tickets
 - Ticket orders are due September 8
 - Alternative- turn them in at Rider Charge Day
- Communication Committee?
 - For social media to notify RHS parents and students of all activities at RHS that day
 - Incoming freshman, Jack Allard to assist?
 - Corinne Lee will temporarily take this task over until a suitable student can/will
 - Kathy Ragels will help lead
 - A Twitter account was created at SF_RHSBooster.....share with your students and friends!!
 - A Facebook account is being created.
- Future Meeting Format
 - Three activities/sports in season at each meeting have a student report for their activity.
 - A way for Boosters to hear from the students.
 - All other activity reports will be submitted electronically.
- Discovery Day- Terry Grove
 - Students from RHS used to go to Discovery Elementary for Discovery Day to teach mini clinics to the students. Possible to do something like this again?

Adjourn

Future Meetings:

- September 21
- October 19
- November 16

Respectfully submitted by Kristi Irsfeld
