Principal/Activities Director report:

Tim Hazlet, Principal of RHS, addressed the Booster Club. He expressed appreciation for what the club does for the students at RHS. The role of the school in the booster club is to express needs and listen to concerns. The role of the booster club in the school is to encourage parent involvement and financial support. A discussion continued regarding the role of the booster club in helping with possible volunteer needs within the school. It was suggested by members to possibly look at adding a position on the board or within the club of "Parent Coordinator".
